Miss Hollins and Mrs. Gavin
Win From the Misses
Leitch 1 Up.

VICTORS 4 UP AT SIXTH

British Champion Makes a
Brilliant Rally and Wins
Score Prize With 85.

By KERR N. PETRIE.

Teaming no well at the outset that they were enabled to win the first three holes and to lead by 4 up with no more than six played. Miss Marion Hollins of Westport, the national champion, and Mrs. W. A. Gavin of Belleaire, succeeded in holding something of the initial gain right through to the end of a best ball match on the Baltusrol links yesterday against the Misses Cecil and Edith Leitch, thereby giving America a victory over Great Britain. The margin in favor of the home side at the finish was only one hole, thanks to the brilliant play of the British champion, Miss Cecil Leitch, from the eighth to the end of the round.

There were even visions of a halved match as Miss Hollins out of it through a hooked drive and a bunkered second. Mrs. Gavin was left to hold at bay the eager British girls on the last hole. With all three on in two and Mrs. Gavin and Miss Edith safe for their fours, Miss Cecil was left with a ten foot putt for a birdie to bring matters back to an even basis. In her eagerness the British star overran and found herself with quite a sizeable putt for a 4. The stroke was successful.

Although defeated in match play Miss Cecil Leitch came out of the fray with honors as great as if she had won, because of the fact that she easily led the medal play scoring for a special prize and also that she virtually had played the better ball of her opponents throughout the round.

From the way she played the first eight holes it did not look as if Miss Cecil would better 90 or that the British girls could stage off a defeat that would approximate a rout in its severity. The sinister shadow of that disastrous day of four holes still loomed above the British triple crowned queen of the links as she laid her iron shot on the pin for the 133 yard ninth. Miss Leitch had been finding that the newly cut cups were defective, the ball at the crucial moment. On this ninth she gave the ball the club from a distance of thirty feet and almost bent in the back of the net. She jumped the bunker, but her force was spent with the impact and down it came again, to rest an inch or two from the cup. Miss Hollins and Mrs. Gavin each scored a 4, and thus was the long lane of adversity turned for the British pair.

British Champion Fights Back.
On the 410 yard tenth Miss Cecil was over the green on her second, but pitching back to within less than five feet of the hole, she sank the only 4 made here. The match was into the new part of the Baltusrol by a narrow margin. With the extra shot it looked bad for the English pair. While Miss Hollins was nicely on the green and Mrs. Gavin at the bunker, Miss Leitch was running up a triple too wide for her 3 and Miss Hollins taking three putts, the British champion sank in a twenty footer for a 3.

This left the British pair only one hole to the bad. Miss Cecil should have evened the score at the next, but she closed the door upon opportunity with one of those tantalizing holes for which Miss Hollins had wanted a stroke since the out of bounds and Mrs. Gavin had set into trouble through the fairway. However, for the English pair it was mostly a case of hope deferred to a next hole by a very brilliant and unexpected flash of play on the part of the British champion.

Miss Hollins started by topping and then on top of this she overplayed the green. The distance of 202 yards appeared to be a little bit too much against her wind for Mrs. Gavin and Miss Edith Leitch, but both were short and in the rough. Driving all the way to the green, but having her ball deflected by the wind into a trap, Miss Cecil had a close to the bank of the bunker, with a frontal explosion shot her only hope of salvation. That bunker stroke proved to be one of the features of the match, for Miss Leitch's ball came to rest only a club's length from the cup. A treacherous downhill putt still had to be made, but the champion accomplished this by laying back the blade of her putter, touching the ball over so lightly and plotting it straight for the center of the hole.

Chance Lost at Sixteenth.

Of the remaining five holes all were halved save the first, where Miss Hollins won with a 5 after slicing her tee shot between the out of bounds stakes. An iron shot that was caught in the corner of the bunker proved the undoing of Miss Cecil Leitch on this hole. With her sister picking up on every hole from the fourteenth to the sixteenth, the British champion carried on alone. She should have had the match squared at the sixteenth, but after playing magnificently on this 530 yard hole and getting home with drive, bruise and iron she took three putts and allowed Miss Hollins to come in for a half, even after being in the bunker with a sliced iron.

It was found in the final analysis that Miss Cecil Leitch had won the low score prize by a margin of seven strokes.

Tilden and Richards to Meet in Five Set Match

William T. Tilden, world's tennis champion, and Vincent Richards, national junior title holder, are to meet in an exhibition match on the courts of the Elizabeth Town and Country Club tomorrow afternoon in another of the series for the benefit of the Fund for Devastated France. This time they are to play for the best three out of five sets. It will be remembered that Richards' victory over Tilden at Providence last July was scored in a contest that went the limit of five sets.

Miss C. Smith Wins Gross
Prize in Women's Golf Meet

Defeats Miss Kate Bomann in Baltusrol Play-off.

After a tie with Miss Kate Bomann of Plainfield at 37 Mrs. Cortlandt Smith of Glen Ridge yesterday won the gross prize in a women's golf tournament held over the Baltusrol links prior to the exhibition match between Miss Hollins and Mrs. Gavin against the British pair, the Misses Cecil and Edith Leitch. A large field competed, most of the women being through with their play in time to witness the full eighteen holes of the major attraction.

Low net card was the 110-55-85 of Mrs. H. Richardson of Upper Montclair, while Mrs. W. Rogers of Plainfield was next with 111-55-88. Other low net returns were Mrs. A. D. Pratt of Baltusrol, 112-56-82; Mrs. T. C. Schreiber, Baltusrol, 112-56-83; and Mrs. J. A. Arnold, Inwood, 113-56-84.

Golfers of the New York Athletic Club ran off the first round of match play yesterday at the Baltusrol links. The club in their annual championship tournament, W. L. Richard, the champion, was among those qualifying for the semi-final in the title division. The results: C. N. Bryon, Jr., beat Pierre A. Proal, 1 up; N. W. Peters beat P. C. Gabriel, 6 and 4; A. C. Richard beat R. Leunberger, 3 and 1; W. L. Richard beat Theodore Cassebeer, 2 and 1.

FIVE FAVORITES IN FRONT AT EMPIRE

Star Court Only Surprise—
Georgie Gallops Home Victor in Weight Handicap.

By HENRY V. KING.

Horses ran true to form yesterday afternoon at the Empire City track. Five favorites won and all of them were heavily played by the rank and file of racegoers. The only surprise of the day came in the third race, when Star Court beat home a big field of the cheapest horses in training. He was at 15 to 1.

A feature of the card was the West Point Handicap Handicap over the short six furlong course. Four horses started in this event, but it was really one horse affair. Mrs. Wilfrid Vau's Georgie was no much better than his opponents that despite his 130 pounds he galloped all the way to win by a length. James Butler's East View was second and W. C. Casey's one yard wonder horse, Knight of the Heather, was third.

The start was a perfect one and for fifty or sixty yards the quartet stopped along like so many cavalry horses. Then East View shot to the front and opened up a gap of a length and a half. But Georgie went after him and before the first furlong had been covered Georgie was at the leader's heels and fighting hard for his head. Kummer held Georgie in check and allowed East View to take the pace until a furlong from home. There he gave his mount a little free rein and Georgie bounded to the front and won easily up C. J. Ryan's colors flashed home in front in two events. In the opening race his Rose Hill beat a quintet of juveniles and in the final his North-cliff won and his Dan Bolling was second.

Rose Hill, outrun in the early stages, followed the pace to the final furlong, then came with a rush and won handsily by a length. Nose Dive was second and Chevinch third. Northcliff displayed a tremendous burst of early speed in the final event and stepping the first quarter in twenty-two seconds he won by a big lead, which he held to the judges. Five lengths in back of him finished his stable mate, Dan Bolling. Dan's finish was not so strong. He dived in the last fifty yards and Turner was compelled to put up a rousing ride to beat Fitzgibbons home by a head.

The second race, at one mile, resulted in a stirring finish between Siren Male and Thimble. At the end they were only short heads apart. Sagacity set the pace to the turn into the stretch. Then Siren Male went to the front and seemed like an easy winner, but he faltered in the final sixteenth and Thimble, coming with a rush, almost nipped her on the post.

Star Court never left the result of the third race in doubt. He took the lead at the start, gained ground with every bound and was eased up five lengths in front of Solid Rock. Joe Joe was third. Eddie Ambrose convinced the stewards he was not to blame for the spill in the first race on Monday and he was reinstated.

Lexington Results.
